

Queiros J (Joao)

From: Stainer P (Paul) (MARLAB)
Sent: 12 July 2014 18:55
To: Ford A (Alexander)
Subject: FW: 002/TIDE/SPR - 2: ScottishPower Renewables: Sound of Islay Tidal Demonstration Array: Environmental Statement Consultation

From: McLay A (Anne) (MARLAB)
Sent: 07 July 2014 14:53
To: Stainer P (Paul) (MARLAB)
Subject: RE: 002/TIDE/SPR - 2: ScottishPower Renewables: Sound of Islay Tidal Demonstration Array: Environmental Statement Consultation

Paul

I think I have missed the 4 July deadline for comments.

The changes as far as I can ascertain are minor. There will remain however potential for displacement of inshore fisheries, mainly creeling for crab and lobster, from the development area. Permanent loss of fishing grounds

As I recall developers were charged appointing a fisheries liaison officer and with working with stakeholders to develop fisheries mitigation plans.

I assume this is still part of the licensing requirement.

Anne

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

[Redacted]