Dear Miss Brown,

MARINE (SCOTLAND) ACT 2010, PART 4 MARINE LICENSING

Scottish Sea Farms Lts – Existing Marine Farms – Snarraness Voe and Slocka, Ronas Voe, Shetland

I refer to your application for a licence in respect of the above proposals.

I am pleased to inform you that the licensing authority has no objections to the issue of the requested licence, and I therefore enclose licence numbers MS-00009457 and MS-00009458. You are advised to carefully check the licence and schedule documents. If there are any errors, please inform the licensing authority immediately.

You should note that the licence includes a condition requiring that a written report should be submitted to the licensing authority detailing all deposits made under authority of the licence. This report should be submitted on the form that can be found here:

<https://www.gov.scot/binaries/content/documents/govscot/publications/advice-and-guidance/2020/02/marine-licensing-applications-and-guidance/documents/applications/fep5---deposit-return-form/fep5---deposit-return-form/govscot%3Adocument/Template%2B-%2BAttestation%2BForm%2B%2528Deposit%2529.docx>.

I would also draw your attention to the licence conditions relating to amendment of the licence or schedule documents. If circumstances arise which necessitate changes to your licence you should advise the licensing authority as soon as possible. After a licence has expired, it cannot be amended or extended in any way, and a new licence application (accompanied by the relevant fee) is required. Processing the new application may take up to fourteen weeks from the date of receipt of the application fee.

If you wish to continue operating the marine farms after 17 March 2028, please ensure a new licence application is submitted at least fourteen weeks prior to this date.

Under the Marine Licensing Appeals (Scotland) Regulations 2011 (S.S.I. 2011/203), you are entitled to appeal if you are dissatisfied with any condition in the licence. An appeal may be lodged in any sheriff court in Scotland and must be lodged no later than 21 days after the date of this letter.

All correspondence or communications relating to this letter or the licence document should be sent to the address below.

Yours sincerely,

Claire Crookston
