The proposed works are subject to an environmental impact assessment ("EIA") under the above EIA Regulations.

The EIA Report can be viewed online at <https://skyeecomuseum.com/> and <https://bit.ly/3rDhHdg>. Copies of the EIA report may also be obtained from Affric Limited (tel. 01808 521498) at a charge of £250 for hard copy and £10 on USB (including postage and packaging). Copies of a short non-technical summary are available from Affric Limited free of charge.

Any representations should be made in writing to the consenting authority by email to: ms.marinelicensing@gov.scot or by post to The Scottish Government, Marine Scotland Licensing Operations Team, Marine Laboratory, 375 Victoria Road, Aberdeen, AB11 9DB, identifying the proposed works and specifying grounds for the representation, not later than 30th of January 2022. The Scottish Ministers may consider representations received after this date. Representations should be dated and clearly state the name (in block capitals) and the full return email or postal address of those making the representation.

Subsequent submission by Staffin Community Trust of additional information (as defined in the above EIA Regulations) to the Scottish Ministers will be publicised in a similar manner to the current application including publication on the above websites. Representations relative to additional information should be made on the same basis as detailed above.

Having considered the application for a marine licence and the above legislation together with any representations received the Scottish Ministers may:

- grant marine licence with or without conditions attached; or
- refuse the application

Fair Processing Notice

The Scottish Government's Marine Scotland - Licensing Operations Team ("MS-LOT") processes applications under the Marine (Scotland) Act 2010. During the consultation process any person having an interest in the outcome of the application may make a representation to MS-LOT. The representation may contain personal information, for example a name or address. This representation will only be used for the purpose of determining an application and will be stored securely in the Scottish Government's official corporate record. Representations will be shared with the applicant and/or agent acting on behalf of the applicant, any people or organisations that we consult in relation to the application and, where necessary, be published online, however personal information will be removed before sharing or publishing.
