Dear

MARINE (SCOTLAND) ACT 2010, PART 4 MARINE LICENSING

Aberdeen Offshore Windfarm Limited – Construction of cameras on AWF6 and AWF10 – European Offshore Wind Deployment Centre

I refer to your application for a marine licence in respect of the above proposal.

I am pleased to inform you that the licensing authority has no objections to the issue of the requested marine licence, and I therefore enclose marine licence number 00010142. You are advised to carefully check the licence and schedule documents. If there are any errors please inform the licensing authority immediately.

Your licence also includes a condition requiring a written report to be submitted to the licensing authority detailing all materials used in the construction works under authority of the licence. This report can be accessed via the following link:

<https://www.gov.scot/binaries/content/documents/govscot/publications/advice-and-guidance/2020/02/marine-licensing-applications-and-guidance/documents/applications/fep5---construction-return-form/fep5---construction-return-form/govscot%3Adocument/FEP5%2B-%2Bconstruction%2Breturn%2Bform.docx>

May I also draw your attention to the licence conditions relating to amendment of the licence or schedule documents. If circumstances arise which necessitate changes or extension to your licence please advise the licensing authority as soon as possible. After a licence has expired, it cannot be amended or extended in any way, and a new licence application (accompanied by the relevant fee) is required. Processing the new application may take up to fourteen weeks from the date of receipt of the application fee.

Under the Marine Licensing Appeals (Scotland) Regulations 2011 (S.S.I. 2011/203), you are entitled to appeal if you are dissatisfied with any condition in the licence. An appeal may be lodged in any sheriff court in Scotland and must be lodged no later than 21 days after the date of this letter.

All correspondence or communications relating to this letter or the licence document should be sent to the email or postal address detailed below.

Yours sincerely

Licensing Operations Team
