Dear Mr Geddes,

MARINE (SCOTLAND) ACT 2010 AND MARINE AND COASTAL ACCESS ACT 2009, PART 4 MARINE LICENSING

Moray Offshore Windfarm (West) Limited – Marine Licence and European Protected Species Licence for Unexploded Ordnance Clearance

I refer to your application for a licence in respect of the above proposal(s).

I am pleased to inform you that the Licensing Authority has no objections to the issue of the requested licence, and I therefore enclose marine licence number MS-00010264 and EPS licence number EPS/BS-00010265. You are advised to carefully check the licence and schedule documents. If there are any errors, please inform the Licensing Authority immediately.

You should note that marine licence number MS-00010264 includes a condition where the Licensed Activity authorised under the previous marine licence (licence number MS-00010033) is not permitted.

With regards to EPS licence number EPS/BS-00010265, I am obliged to draw your attention to the conditions contained within the licence, as detailed by our advisors. Under The Conservation (Natural Habitats, &c.) Amendment (Scotland) Regulations 2007, it is an offence to fail to comply with those conditions.

If circumstances arise which necessitate changes to your licence you should advise the Licensing Authority as soon as possible. After a licence has expired, it cannot be amended or extended in any way, and a new licence application (accompanied by the relevant fee) is required. Processing the new application may take up to fourteen weeks from the date of receipt of the application fee.

Under the Marine Licensing Appeals (Scotland) Regulations 2011 (S.S.I. 2011/203), you are entitled to appeal if you are dissatisfied with any condition in the licence. An appeal may be lodged in any sheriff court in Scotland and must be lodged no later than 21 days after the date of this letter.

All correspondence or communications relating to this letter or the licence document should be sent ms.marinerenewables@gov.scot

Yours sincerely

Rebecca Ross
