Appendix 6-1: Overview of Identified Onshore Historic Environment Assets

ORCA No.	Canmore ID	Site Name	Site Type	Period	Importance	Description
1	2563	Saverock	Souterrain	Prehistoric	Medium	The site of a souterrain excavated in 1848, said to contain large amounts of bone and shell, and three stone tools. Visible as rough tussocky area bounded on the coastal side by a section of walling 2-3 courses (3m x 0.5m) and with two small sections of 2-3 courses of drystone walling partly exposed within a slight indentation in the coastal section below (1.5m x 1m and 2m x 0.5m)
2	-	-	Military installation	21st century	Uncertain	Two tiered large stone and concrete building with projecting walls to the SW, currently in use as a barn. Likely to be military, perhaps associated with RNAS Hatston
3a	269622	Hatston Airfield	Bomb store, dispersal bay	20th century	Medium	Part of the remains of the bomb store for Hatston Airfield, one of a line of six concrete double blast walls and concrete chambers within earth mounds aligned parallel to the coast
3b	269622	Hatston Airfield	Bomb store, dispersal bay	21st century	Medium	Part of the remains of the bomb store for Hatston Airfield, one of a line of six concrete double blast walls and concrete chambers within earth mounds aligned parallel to the coast
3c	269622	Hatston Airfield	Bomb store, dispersal bay	22nd century	Medium	Part of the remains of the bomb store for Hatston Airfield, one of a line of six concrete double blast walls and concrete chambers within earth mounds aligned parallel to the coast
3d	269622	Hatston Airfield	Bomb store, dispersal bay	23rd century	Medium	Part of the remains of the bomb store for Hatston Airfield, one of a line of six concrete double blast walls and concrete chambers within earth mounds aligned parallel to the coast
3e	269622	Hatston Airfield	Bomb store, dispersal bay	24th century	Medium	Part of the remains of the bomb store for Hatston Airfield, one of a line of six concrete double blast walls and concrete chambers within earth mounds aligned parallel to the coast
3f	269622	Hatston Airfield	Bomb store, dispersal bay	25th century	Medium	Part of the remains of the bomb store for Hatston Airfield, one of a line of six concrete double blast walls and concrete chambers within earth mounds aligned parallel to the coast
4	-	-	Noust?	Post-Medieval?	Negligible	Sub-rectangular depression (7m x 3m x 1m) parallel to coastal section with a narrow channel at right angles running into section
5a	269623	Hatston Airfield	Aircraft Hangars	20th Century	Negligible	Originally one of a group of five aircraft hangars and blast banks, part of Hatston Airfield, removed in 2015/ 2018.
5b		Hatston Airfield	Aircraft Hangars	20th Century	Negligible	Originally one of a group of five aircraft hangars and blast banks, part of Hatston Airfield, beneath modern infrastructure associated with pier
5c	269623	Hatston Airfield	Aircraft Hangars	20th Century	Medium	Originally one of a group of five aircraft hangars and blast banks, part of Hatston Airfield, no longer upstanding but crop marks visible on Google Earth suggest some remains may survive
5d		Hatston Airfield	Aircraft Hangars	20th Century	Negligible	Originally one of a group of five aircraft hangars and blast banks, part of Hatston Airfield, partly upstanding
5e	269623	Hatston Airfield	Aircraft Hangars	20th Century	Negligible	Originally one of a group of five aircraft hangars and blast banks, part of Hatston Airfield, beneath modern infrastructure associated with pier
6	81649	Hatston	Airfield	20th century	Medium	The site of the WWII airfield RNAS Hatston, now largely subsumed within Hatston industrial estate
7	2541	Hatston	Souterrain	Prehistoric	Medium	The site of a souterrain discovered during the construction of Hatston aerodrome, contained a stone artefact and pottery.
8	2574	Saverock	Burnt Mound	Prehistoric	Medium	A grass-covered mound 2m high and with a small trench dug across it revealing fire blackened earth and burnt stones
9	269625	Hatston Airfield	Pillbox	20th Century	Negligible	Site of a pillbox visible on WWII RAF aerial photos, no longer extant
10	269626	Hatston Airfield	Pillbox	20th Century	Negligible	Site of a pillbox visible on WWII RAF aerial photos, no longer extant
11	306645	Hatston	Settlement	Prehistoric	Uncertain	During road improvements "buildings, corbelled with straight walls and rounded corners; Skaill knives etc. - typical of Skara Brae" were noted
12		Lower Saverock	Farmstead	Post-Medieval	Negligible	A farmstead is marked on the Ordnance Survey First Edition. It seems likely any remains will have ben destroyed during the construction of infrastructure associated with the industrial area and pier at Haston
13			Quarry	Post-Medieval	Negligible	An old quarry is marked on the Ordnance Survey First Edition
14			Flagstaff, butt, target	Post-Medieval	Negligible	A flagstaff, butt and target are marked on the Ordnance survey First Edition
